2. All of the above people are with the Bell Laboratory, Summit,
New Jersey.

3. While in the process of preparing this note, Herbert Miller called me to indicate that he will have three more names to add to this list.
He emphasized that there was a great urgency to be able to talk to these people by noon 7 August. He explained that they would not divulge any CIA connection nor any operational phases of this project. However, they would have to explain the technical features of the aircraft as well as the present altitude.
